Prova scritta n.1

DOMANDA 1:

Il candidato/La candidata gestisca la seguente richiesta strutturando una risposta e-mail:

SENDER: Marc Twain, Assistant Professor at the University of Chicago

Dear sir/madam,

I am glad that my application for the visit period has been accepted.

I can't wait to start my collaboration with your prestigious Institute.

With reference to my 6-month assignment for research activity that will start on 1st of October 2023, I would need some specific information.

1. As I don't want to avail myself of the convention against double taxation, do you think I can be registered in the Italian Healthcare service? Is it for free?
2. Do you think that my family members can accompany me?
3. Is health insurance included in the compensation?
4. I would like to learn italian, are there any available courses?

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

PhD Eng. M. Twain

DOMANDA 2:

This is the challenge of our teaching, that we continuously renew and enrich through:

- A hand-on and rigorous method, to give our graduates a competitive advantage when approaching job opportunities.
- A focus on entrepreneurship, where students, graduates and researchers are motivated to become entrepreneurs within new business ventures.
- Continuous collaboration with institutions and society to create a “culturally open”, creative, innovation oriented and responsible environment.

Consistently to our mission, we want to be a global leader in learning model innovation, combining technology, innovation, and management with experiential and one-to-one teaching methods.

Serving causes: SOM for no profit

Social and non-profit organizations are central players in society and the economy that present specific needs and challenges.

The SOM for non-profit program is the framework we created for collaborating steadily with them: project works, theses, internships, capacity building, research projects are some of the activities we promote every year.

Since 2017 more than 200 students put themselves to the test addressing the challenges posed by 24 non-profit organizations.
