Universidad Eafit - Medellín

Description

Universidad EAFIT (Escuela de Administración, Finanzas e Instituto Tecnológico) is a private Colombian university located in Medellín. EAFIT is the most prestigious private university in Medellín and started in the first years as a “School of Management and Finance”.

Nowadays the University has 23 undergraduate programs, 70 specializations, 34 masters, and six doctoral programs. The university offers degrees in various disciplines through its schools of Management, Engineering, Law, Finance and Economics, Science, and Humanities.

Strengths

- One focal point on EAFIT is the Research-backed teaching, as the goal is to not only convey but also generate knowledge.
- Various artistic manifestations, such as music, literature, dance, theater, film cycles, and exhibitions, make up a cultural agenda that permeates all parts of the campus, enables the formation of groups with shared interests, and fosters the organization’s reach and impact both internally and externally.
