 Linz, Austria

Universität für Künstlerische und Industrielle Gestaltung

Description

The School has its roots in the “Kunstschule” (Art School) of the City of Linz and was founded in 1947. Had an explicit statement to signify dissociation from the previous art policy of the National Socialist era. It is positioned at the interface of freeartistic and applied economically oriented design.

The University of Art and Design Linz is going to distinguish itself artistically, creatively and academically as a place of unrestricted, brave and visionary thinking and a zone of critical experimenting. With the clear goal of qualitative and quantitative growth, the university commits to four profile-defining points of focus: Contemporary Art and Beyond, Postdigital Cultures, Sustainable and Critical Design, Transformative Research and Education.

Strengths

- The course Space and Design strategies is unique in Europe. The phenomena of both real world and virtual space are analyzed, defined and implemented.
- High standards University.
- Determination to act with an eye to the future and to adapt its contents and resources to meet the social/societal, ecological and technological challenges of globalisation and digital transformation.
